ILCCO-INTEGRAL Proposal

Management Core Tip Sheet & FAQs

REDCap is a powerful research study data collection tool that empowers the cores for active interactions and communications. To best support the ILCCO-INTEGRAL Proposal Management Core Members' activities to review, approve, interact and communicate with the Proposal Submission members, we've developed the following Tip Sheet 'How-To' Guide to streamline the process.

When you're designated as an ILCCO-INTEGRAL Proposal Management Core Member, your account access is granted.

- ☐ Go to: https://redcap.research.bcm.edu/
  Username: email as entered in your proposal
  Password: There's a system generated link for you to set up your password per REDCap support team.
- ☐ In case you missed the system generated email link, you can change/setup/re-set your password by using 'Forget the password word?
